IS HELD UP ON COUNTRY ROAD

Harry Callihan, 23 Years Old, Robbed of $10, While Returning Home
Last Night.

FOUR MASKED MEN DID WORK

Order Young Man to Deliver at Point of Revolver--Happened About Midnight.

While returning to his home south-west of Arlington last night about 11:30 o'clock, Harry Callihan, 23 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Callihan, was held up and robbed of ten dollars by four masked men. The men advanced in the road when young Callihan was near home, stopped the horse and commanded Callihan to deliver at the point of a revolver.

Callihan had been visiting his girl, near this city and was on his way home when the robbery occurred. He was driving his horse at a moderate gait, when he was startled by his horse being brought to a sudden stop. The night was very dark and Callihan had no idea of what was taking place until he recognized the shapes of several men around the buggy.

Callihan then fully realized what was taking place, when one of the men stuck a revolver up near his face and kindly requested him to get out and deliver all of his valuables. Callihan could do nothing more than get out of the buggy and submit to the search. It so happened that he had nothing more than ten dollars on his person and all of that was appropriated by the unknown robbers.

When the four men had made a thorough search, they allowed their victim to drive on. They warned Callihan not to attempt to follow them, telling him that it might result disastrously for him. Callihan had no intention of following them and drove hurriedly home and reported the hold-up to his parents. He left the men in the middle of the road and does not know in which direction they went. He had no watch or anything else of value on his person, besides the ten dollars.

Callihan said over the telephone this afternoon that he had no idea why the men should rob him as there was no occasion for him to carry big sums of money. He says that he has no idea who the men were. He has not notified the authorities and will make no attempt to run down the robbers. Callihan was alone in the buggy.

LOCAL MAN WAS THERE

Carl V. Nipp in Muncie When Train.
Which Was Robbed, Arrived.

Carl V. Nipp was in Muncie last night when the Big Four express train No. 27, which was held up by a lone robber just outside the corporate limits, steamed into the station. He said that he never saw anything so stir a city as the story of the robbery. Mr. Nipp said that women were terror stricken, while some of the men on the train heaved a sigh of relief when they got off at the station. The single robber held up the train with an old rusty revolver and compelled the passengers, over fifty of them, to come forward and deliver. He collected something like $300 and then jumped off the train. Several suspects were arrested last night, but it is not believed that the right man has been captured.

Window glass was first used in modern times in 1557.

AUDITOR TO SEND MONEY

State Gets 5 Per Cent of the County Dog Fund.

Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the State board of health, is preparing to issue a letter to the county auditors of the State, asking that they send to the State treasury the 5 per cent of the county surplus dog fund, provided by the recent general assembly to be used for the treatment of persons who are afflicted with hydrophobia. Under the law the money thus placed in the State treasury can not be used for the purpose intended until the amount on hand reaches $2000.

AMPUTATION MAY BE NECESSARY YET

Dr. J. C. Sexton is Called in Consultation on Account of Mrs.

Oscar Carroll's Illness.

CASE OF BLOOD POISONING

Mrs. Oscar Carroll, living a mile and a half east of Clarksburg, is suffering with a severe case of blood poisoning and grave doubts are expressed that she will recover unless an amputation will check the course of the disease. Dr. J. C. Sexton of this city was called in consultation with Dr. Thomas yesterday afternoon to determine whether or not it would be necessary to amputate the hand or perhaps the arm, which is swollen to the elbow. Dr. Sexton went to Indianapolis early this morning and it was impossible to learn the result of the consultation.

Last Saturday she in some way struck her thumb, injuring it slightly. While the injury caused some pain at the time she thought, instead, it was a splinter in her finger and paid little attention to it. The pain grew worse until Sunday morning, when she called in a physician. The medical man thought it was a felon and treated it as such. In the evening he lanced it. Instead of this relieving the situation the wound caused additional pain and yesterday morning the physician pronounced the victim suffering with a severe case of blood poisoning.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE.

A Christian Science lecture will be given in the court house assembly room Friday evening, April 28, by the Rev. William McKenzie, C. S. B., of Cambridge, Mass., member of the board of lectureship of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass.

TONIGHT'S MEETING.

A cordial invitation is extended to everybody who is interested in Rushville to attend the meeting in the court house this evening and become members of the association. Several women members have signified their intentions of attending tonight. Doctors, dentists, barbers, blacksmiths, real estate and loan men, attorneys, in fact anyone who has an interest in Rushville in the least way. Rushville now has reached the crucial point in its career and it is hoped by all Rushville's merchants and residents that it will ascend and not descend. The Rushville Retail Merchants' Association has shown results in first year of its life and with everyone's help it can do even greater things the second year--Come.

NEXT MEETING IN SEPTEMBER

Fall Session of Indiana Presbytery
Will be Held at Caledonia, Near Madison.

REV. EDGAR McDILL RELEASED

The Rev. A. W. Jamieson Chosen as Moderator and Bert L. Trabue
Re-elected Financial Agent.

The spring meeting of the Indiana Presbytery of the United Presbyterian church closed at Mays last evening after one of the most interesting and successful sessions which has been held in recent years, according to the officials of the organization. The last session of the meeting was held last night, when a conference, open to the public, was held and the topic "Home Missions" was discussed at length. The discussion was led by the Rev. Paul Stewart, pastor of the U. P. church at Milroy. It was decided to hold the fall meeting of the Presbytery at Caledonia, a small town in Jefferson county, near the county seat, Madison. The date of the meeting is Tuesday, September fifth.

The highest honor which can be accorded any minister in the Presbytery was given to the Rev. A. W. Jamieson, pastor of the local U. P. church, when he was elected Moderator. He will succeed the Rev. J. T. Cowan of Indianapolis, the retiring Moderator. The Rev. Mr. Jamieson was also chosen as superintendent of missions in this Presbytery. The local minister has been in charge of the Rushville church only a few months over a year, coming here from Illinois, and that he should be so signally honored when practically a stranger in the Indiana Presbytery, is an indication of his sterling character and ability.

Among the other electoral offices of the Presbytery, the Rev. W. W. McCall, pastor of the Spring Hill church, was re-elected clerk of the meeting. Bert L. Trabue, of 715 North Morgan street, was again chosen financial agent.

The Rev. Edgar McDill, who is very well known here, was released from the pastorate of the United Presbyterian church at Madison. The Rev. Mr. McDill tentative plans are to accept the charge at Middletown, but no definite arrangements have been made as yet.

The general belief is that this spring session was the most interesting one held recently. The spring meeting of the Presbytery is a much more important one than the fall meeting, as it is then that all of the church reports are made and heard and that the officers for the ensuing year are elected. The Rev. A. W. Jamieson says that the visiting delegates and ministers were high in their praise which they received from the people of Mays.

MILLER IMPROVING.

Physicians have removed the stitches from the wounds of William Miller, who was violently assaulted by his son at their home in St. Paul one week ago Sunday evening. All of the wounds have healed nicely and it is now believed that Mr. Miller will have a speedy recovery. He expects to begin carrying the mail on route two out of St. Paul some time this week.

THE WEATHER

Rain or snow north, rain south portion, tonight colder. Friday fair and colder south portion.

COUNCIL TAKES STEP FORWARD

Rushville is Ahead of Other Cities in This Section in Preparing For Stone Pile.

HAS LONG BEEN NEEDED HERE

Idea of Making Little Stones Out of Big Ones is Distasteful to Tramps and Drunks.

It is the general consensus of opinion that the city council took a step forward Tuesday night, when the city attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance providing for a stone pile in the city of Rushville. That such an institution in the city will cause tramps to avoid Rushville and leave it off their "itinerary," there is no doubt. It will also cause intoxicated men to refrain from being a public nuisance, when they have visions of making little stones out of big ones for ten or fifteen days.

Other cities in this section of the State have been urging such a reform in the nature of a city stone pile or a county work house, but Rushville is the first city to take the step forward. The agitation in that direction has been especially strong in New Castle, where the needs of a work-house are pointed out by the newspapers as being especially necessary.

The New Castle Courier says in regard to the subject:

"What shall be done with the vagrants?"

The above interrogation has superceded the option question in the minds of the officials of New Castle and the county peace officers and is of vast importance, as for the last few days the city has been overrun with a gang of hoboes, tramps, vagrants and probably yeggmen, who have been giving the officers considerable trouble.

In addition to the tramps a coterie of "panhandling" cripples has made the city their headquarters and have reaped a rich harvest from the generous and prosperous workmen at the various factories.

The numerous robberies committed by yeggmen throughout Indiana and adjoining States is causing the police department to be unusually vigilant. It is confidentially believed that included in the hobo visitors to New Castle are numerous yeggs, who would not hesitate to blow a safe or commit any other unlawful act.

It is the opinion of the officers that there is but one satisfactory way to put an end to the tramp epidemic. The sure cure is the building and operating of a workhouse with a generous stone pile on which to work the prisoners. The workhouse has long been advocated by the city officials, whose plan has never met with the approval of the county commissioners, although it has been recommended by the grand jury. The latter body will take up the question again at its session, which began yesterday.

BUGGY WORKS SOLD.

The old Sterling Buggy Company's property at the corner of Ninth street and the Big Four railroad was sold yesterday at sheriff's sale in the court house to the highest bidder. The property went to Clifford & Reynolds, who operate the Bentwood factory, just across the street, for three hundred dollars. There were only three bids submitted, Lon Stewart and Robert L. Tompkins being the other two bidders.

Mrs. Helen Hoy Greeley, suffragette, urges married suffragettes to drop that "Mrs." and discontinue the Christian names of their husbands.

EXPECTS TO OPEN SALOON

August Roth Hopes to do Business
This Evening.

It was expected that August Roth's saloon in the Offutt room in First street would be ready for opening by four o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Roth, together with Will Price, was just granted a license Tuesday evening, and has made quick work in opening his doors so soon. He has been conducting a lunch room and soft drink parlor since the saloons were voted out two years ago. This will be the fourth saloon to open in Rushville.

TO VISIT SHOWERS FURNITURE PLANT

Committee From Local Organization Expects to go to Bloomington

First of Next Week.

IS A VERY MODERN FACTORY

The committee from the local company which has been organized to build the new fifty thousand dollar furniture factory, plans to make a few more trips over the State yet before final preparations are made for building. The committee will go to Bloomington the first of next week to inspect the Showers furniture factory. The Showers family is possibly the wealthiest one in Bloomington and has a great amount of capital invested in the factory. It was only recently completely remodeled and a new addition built to the main building so that the manufacturing concern now has probably the most up-to-date plant in the State.

The committee visited the McDougal kitchen cabinet plant at Frankfort Tuesday and were much pleased with their trip. It has been their intentions from the first to build a one story machine room, each machine to have an individual motor and to erect a three story finishing room. It is likely that that will be the ultimate plan as it has been the idea all the time and it is not very probable that their general plans will be changed much by the trips over the State.

HAVE CONTRACT FOR OILING PIKE

City Figuring With Wilk and Redman to Use Tarvia on the Streets.

IS BETTER THAN CRUDE OIL

Phil Wilk and Will Redman have the contract to oil the pike from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home to Knightstown and are making preparations to commence the work. The road will be spiked first, then oiled with tarvia and rolled. They have special oiling apparatus for the work and expect to do quite a bit of oiling this summer on the roads leading into Rushville. They are figuring with the city to fix several of the streets and the plan is for the city to pay for the spiking and the property owners to pay for the tarvia, which will cost between eight and ten cents a square yard. Tarvia is considered better than the ordinary oil used for this kind of work as it acts as a binder and when rolled in after applied is said to make a fine street.

RAINS RETARD SPRING PLOWING

Farmers Are Anxious on Account of Present Weather Conditions
For Season's Crops.

GROUND THOROUGHLY SOAKED

Everything Looked Promising For an Early Spring Only a Few Weeks Ago.

The crop "dopster" on the Connersville News hands out the following which it is believed, suits local conditions:

A few weeks ago, or even later, farmers in all parts of the county and vicinity were busily rejoicing in the prospect of finishing the plowing of their corn land early. This, as is well known, is considered an important thing to the end of a good yield, since corn planted early, other things being equal, stands a better chance of maturing properly and of withstanding drouth, which sometimes comes in August, than does that which is not planted until later in the spring.

In the midst of this prospect the rains came and nearly ever since the ground, even in the valley, where the under soil is of gravel and which therefore allows the soil to dry more quickly than the upland fields with their clay subsoil, have been kept thoroughly soaked with water. It is estimated that practically every farm in the county would be too wet to plow during all the rest of this week, even had the rain ceased early today and been followed by the most drying weather.

In view of these conditions farmers are growing anxious. April is here and more than half the corn ground is still unbroken. However, observant farmers are daily expecting a change of weather—a change from the gloom and rain to bright, warm, breezy days which will last for a sufficient time to allow the remaining land to be plowed, conditioned and planted without the interruption of anything worse than showers.

COUNTY MEETING WAS HELD HERE

Modern Woodmen Elect Dr. J. G.
Lewis Delegate to State Convention and Will Lines Alternate.

NINE CANDIDATES INITIATED

The annual county meeting of the Modern Woodmen lodge was held here last night under the auspices of the local lodge. Delegates and members of the lodges from all over the country were present. It was expected that the business meeting would be held in the afternoon but the delegates did not arrive in time and the session was held before the degree work last night. Dr. J. G. Lewis of this city was elected delegate to the State convention from this county and Will Lines of the Milroy lodge was chosen alternate.

After the business session the degree was conferred on nine candidates by the degree teams from the local lodge and the Milroy lodge. Light refreshments were served and a very enjoyable time was had until an early hour in the morning. It was decided to hold the next annual county meeting in Milroy next April.

LIQUID CURES ECZEMA WHERE SALVE FAILS

In regard to skin diseases medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT. A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. D. Prescription, penetrates to the disease germs and destroys it, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 25-cent trial bottle will start the cure, and give you instant relief.

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. SENATE AFFAIRS IN THESE MEN'S HANDS

Committees That Will Control In Upper House.

Washington, April 6.—Senator Cullom, chairman of the Republican caucus, has announced the names of the Republican members of the three committees he was authorized to appoint by the Republican caucus. The committee on committees, which will also be the committee to distribute patronage, will be composed of the following Republicans: Gallinger of New Hampshire, Lodge of Massachusetts, Warren of Wyoming, Penrose of Pennsylvania, Heyburn of Idaho, Smoot of Utah, La Follette of Wisconsin, Bourne of Oregon, Cummins of Iowa, Bradley of Kentucky, Bristow of Kansas.

The steering committee, which will direct legislation, will be: Cullom of Illinois, Gallinger of New Hampshire, Clark of Wyoming, Nelson of Minnesota, Gamble of South Dakota, Brandegee of Connecticut, William Alden Smith of Michigan, Borah of Idaho, Brown of Nebraska, Briggs of New Jersey and Jones of Washington.

House Adopts New Rules.

Washington, April 6.—In the house there was a wrangle over the rules, a futile filibuster by the Republican leaders, and a strenuous kick by the Republican insurgents, who sought an opportunity to amend the set of regulations which the Democratic rules committee had labored over for many days. The Republicans protested in vain. The new rules were adopted and are now the law of the house. They differ from those that obtained in the former house in only two or three particulars. All the reform ideas written into rules incident to the insurgent movement of the last congress are to be found in the new code.

Took Fatal Dose by Mistake.

Michigan City, Ind., April 6.—Warren R. Corey, aged seventy-four, a civil war veteran, is dead as a result of poisoning from a dose of eye water. He had been taking cough medicine, a bottle of which stood on a shelf beside the eye water, and he took a dose of the latter by mistake.

UNCLE JOE DOESN'T CONCEAL FEELINGS

Sidney Anderson Tells of a Case In Point.

Washington, April 6.—Representative Sidney Anderson, the Minnesota progressive, who defeated the veteran James A. Tawney in the primary last September, does not stand high in the esteem of former Speaker Cannon. Mr. Anderson himself furnishes evidence to this effect. Tuesday Mr. Anderson cast his vote for Representative Henry A. Cooper of Wisconsin for minority leader, instead of for Representative James R. Mann, the Republican caucus nominee.

"When I heard my name called," said Mr. Anderson today, "I heard someone near by murmur, 'Who in blazes is that pinhead?' I turned quickly and observed that the speaker was Mr. Cannon. I fancy that Uncle Joe has not a very high opinion of me."

Uncle Joe and Mr. Anderson sit in the same row, only a few feet apart.

This is the Stove Polish

YOU Should Use

IT IS so much better than other stove polishes that it's in a class all by itself.

Black Silk Stove Polish

Makes a brilliant, silky polish that does not rub off or dust off, and the shine lasts four times as long as ordinary stove polish.

Used on sample stoves and sold by hardware dealers.

All we ask is a trial. Use it on your cook stove, your parlor stove or your gas range. If you don't find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to refund your money.

Insist on Black Silk Stove Polish. Don't accept substitutes.

Made in liquid or paste—one quality.

KENTUCKY JUDGE IS PURIFYING BALLOT

Vote Barterers Face Wholesale Indictments.

Louisville, April 6.—Eighty-seven more true bills have been returned and the inquiry into vote selling in eastern Kentucky counties, which has already resulted in a large batch of indictments, is being continued by Circuit Judge D. B. Gardner and Commonwealth Attorney May.

Floyd county, Kentucky, is on the roll with Adams county, Ohio, and Vermillion county, Illinois, the grand jury of Floyd county having returned a total of 297 indictments for vote selling. Judge Gardner has gone to Knott county, which is also in his circuit, to endeavor to see whether there has been any abuse of suffrage in that region.

When the judge is through with Knott he will continue to Magoffin, which is also in his circuit. Incidentally, more investigating will be done in Floyd, and it is said another big batch of indictments will come. There are strong prospects that there will be a bumper crop of disfranchised voters in eastern Kentucky this year.

Judge Gardner is a determined Kentuckian and has announced that he intends to push the inquiry until all is known. In his efforts he has the assistance of Commonwealth Attorney May, who hates a vote seller. The penalty for vote selling is a fine of from $50 to $500 and disfranchisement for life. The vote buyer is also liable to jail imprisonment of from ten to ninety days.

VARIED RESULTS

Noted in the Municipal Elections Held in Illinois.

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—Elections were held Tuesday in a majority of cities and towns in Illinois, with varying results. In some cities for the first time the election was to choose officers under the commission form of government.

Lorimerism was the issue at Springfield, the state capital, where the mayor and three commissioners were elected by the anti-Lorimer element. The fourth commissioner was not endorsed by the anti-Lorimer people, but he declares he is not a Lorimer man.

In Rock Island the present mayor, who fought the adoption of the commission form of government, but became a candidate for re-election under it, was defeated.

Victories by opponents of the liquor traffic were obtained in many small towns and townships, most of which already were "dry." In some cases saloons were voted out.

At Quincy John F. Garner, Republican, was elected mayor by 650 majority over John A. Steinbach, Democrat, who has been mayor for ten years. The issue principally was on closing up gambling houses and a tighter lid.

Bold Indiana Train Robber.

Muncie, Ind., April 6.—A masked bandit who appeared in the day coach of a west-bound Big Four passenger train as it was entering the city limits of Muncie at 7:30 o'clock last evening, held up and robbed the passengers and then disappeared. The robber obtained between $200 and $300 in cash. The similarity between this and a hold-up of a train in the outskirts of St. Louis a few nights ago creates the suspicion that the same person may have turned both tricks.

Great Bridge Contract.

Ottawa, Ont., April 6.—The contract for the construction of the new Quebec bridge across the St. Lawrence, to replace the partly built bridge which collapsed in August, 1907, has been let to the St. Lawrence Bridge company. The contract price is $8,650,000, and the bridge is to be completed before Dec. 31, 1915.

All this wind today may be a surplus from the breezy time which they have been having in "Chi."

We understand from clothing men
that their wares—which by the way are our "wears"—will be cheaper soon.

Taking another slant at that, we take it that they mean after it's too late to buy your Easter duds.

"Was you ever in Muncie"—that old phrase still holds good.

We know a retired farmer who has a little piffle to offer about Rushville's daily papers every time he has an opportunity to make a cute remark. We take it that he is the most pleased who talks the most about not using his name.

Now don't that sound peevish, but some people are strange beings.

The ground hog will be excused now until next February.

We would take it that the backbone of our highly esteemed friend winter is broken, but we fear that he may yet get back in these parts.

THREATEN TO FILE

Stockholders of Decatur Telephone Company Near Freemans and Clarksburg Dissatisfied.

RAISE IN RENT IS ATTEMPTED

The trouble caused by the raising of the rent by the stockholders of the Decatur Telephone Company, has caused no end of discussion between the patrons and the officers of the company. The company is a co-operative one and covers the vicinity
on the Rush-Decatur county line,
around Clarksburg and Freemans.
Stockholders and patrons allege that a few ring-leaders in the company are attempting to gain control and operate the company, according to their own fancy.

It is said that some of the stockholders went to Greensburg one day recently to pay their rent and that the manager refused to accept their money until the stockholders signed an agreement, which the stockholders declare would leave them at the mercy of the officials of the company. It is understood that the stockholders refused to sign the agreement and later mailed their telephone rent to the office. The stockholders assert that when the company was first organized, it was agreed that telephones would be furnished for eighty cents a month. Now they say that an attempt is being made to raise the price to $1.25. Some of the stockholders have threatened to file suit for a receiver.

COUNTY COUNCIL
IN SESSION TODAY

Will Appropriate $660 For Cluster Lights Around Court House at Meeting Tomorrow.

PASSED FAVORABLY ON IT

The county council convened in special session in the court house today on call of County Auditor Jesse Stone to attend to a number of matters that could not be postponed until the annual meeting the first of next year. The council considered appropriations which it was necessary for them to make today and tomorrow they will be in session again
at which time final action will be taken. It is necessary for each appropriation to come up for a second reading before the money is appropriated.

The thing which most interested Rushville today was the re-appropriation of $660 to pay for the cluster lights around the court house. It will be remembered that the money was appropriated for that purpose last year, but that the lights were not completed in time so that the money could be used before the first of the year. The law provides that money appropriated under such conditions must revert back to the treasury at the end of the year and for that reason it was necessary for the council to make the appropriation again. The council passed the appropriation on the first reading this morning and it is thought that they will allow the money tomorrow. The same rule applies to most of the other appropriations which are to be made, they being ones which reverted back to the treasury at the end of last year. Most of the appropriations are for bridges and roads.

DIES MANY YEARS
AFTER ACCIDENT

John Henry, 75 Years Old, Expires
Near Lewisville From Injuries
Received in Runaway.

FUNERAL WILL BE TOMORROW

The funeral services of John Henry, who died at his home near Lewis-ville yesterday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at the late residence at one o'clock. Mr. Henry's death was due to complications, arising from injuries which he received in a runaway accident several years ago. He has been in failing health for a number of years and his death did not come unexpected.

Mr. Henry was born in Fayette county, April 13, 1836. Early in life
he married Miss Catherine Troxell, who survives him. He spent the greater part of his life in Fayette county, and moved to Lewisville a few years ago. Besides his wife he is survived by five children, three daughters, Emma, Anna, and Mabel,
and two sons, Jonathan and Harry.
Three brothers, Jesse, Samuel and James Henry, all of Fayette county, and one sister, Mrs. William Lambert of Oklahoma, also survive him.

TRIAL SET FOR TOMORROW

State vs. Sara Richie Attracting no Little Attention.

The trial of Mrs. Sarah Richie, charged with stealing twenty chickens from Philander Witters will be heard tomorrow in Squire Richie's court in Milroy. The case is attracting no little attention among the citizens of Milroy and the court of justice promises to be packed to the limit. Smith, Cambern & Smith have been retained by Mrs. Richie to defend her and the State will have Meggie & Kiplinger to assist Prosecutor Dennis O'Neil. With all this legal talent the fight should be an interesting one.

AMUSEMENTS

The Palace will have a complete change of program tonight.

The Vaudet management will offer two reels of pictures this evening, featuring an Imp comedy, which is acted by the Imp's all-star company. The Imp picture is entitled "The Unexpected Honeymoon," and is said to be rife with humor and comic situations. The Nestor film, has the title, "Sleepy Hollow" is a drama with many intense scenes, replete with dramatic action. Otto Robbins, who sang for the first time last night and created a good impression, will continue to sing the illustrated songs at the theater. He will sing a new one tonight.

The Star Grand has an extra fine program for tonight. The first film is a Reliance entitled "At Swords' Points." It is a spectacular production showing a sensational battle scene in which one hundred men are engaged with swords, the stirring rescue of the young king from the very jaws of death, the thrilling duel in the dark between the queen and soldiers with wonderful electrical spark effects from the clashing steel is the first time such effects have ever been shown in motion pictures. The second picture is a Yankee entitled "The Test of Love." It is a Spanish drama. The La Croix's will present two high class acts, introducing their electrical bicycle act and Plastic poses with electrical effects. Earl Robertson will sing the illustrated song entitled "In Winter."

SALVATION ARMY MEETING.

Major Barriman and Capt. Widgery of Indianapolis are expected here Saturday night to speak at the Salvation army church where a revival meeting has been in progress since the first of the year. Both men are said to be good speakers and musicians and it is expected that several conversions will be made.

CHAPTER XX.

The Light in the Dome.

From where he sat, in a tiny alcove which jutted out and encroached upon the line of the sidewalk, Mr. Grimm looked down on Pennsylvania Avenue, the central thread of Washington, ever changing, always brilliant, splashed at regular intervals with light from high-fung electric arcs. The early theater crowd was in the street; well dressed, well fed, careless for the moment of all things save physical comfort and amusement; automobiles, carriages, cabs, cars flowed past endlessly; and yet Mr. Grimm saw naught of it. In the distance, at the end of the avenue the dome of the capitol cleft the shadows of night, and a single light sparkled at its apex; in the other direction, at the left of the treasury building which abruptly blocks the wide thoroughfare, were the shimmering windows of the White House.

Motionless, moody, thoughtful, Mr. Grimm sat staring, staring straight ahead, comprehending none of these things which lay before him as in a panorama. Instead, his memory was conjuring up a pair of subtle, blue-gray eyes, now pleading, now coquetish, now frankly defiant; two slim, white, wonderful hands; the echo of a pleasant, throaty laugh; a splendid, elusive, radiant-haired phantom. Truly, a woman of mystery! Who was this Isabel Thorne who, for months past, had been the storm-center and directing mind of a vast international intrigue which threatened the world with war? Who, this remarkable young woman who with ease and assurance commanded ambassadors and played nations as pawns?

Now that she was safely out of the country Mr. Grimm had leisure to speculate. Upon him had devolved the duty of blocking her plans, and he had done so—merciless alike of his own feelings and of hers. Hesitation or evasion had never occurred to him. It was a thing to be done, and he did it. He wondered if she had understood, there at the last beside the rail? He wondered if she knew the struggle it had cost him deliberately to send her out of his life? Or had even surmised that her expulsion from the country, by his direct act, was wholly lacking in the exaltation of triumph to him; that it struck deeper than that, below the listless, official exterior, into his personal happiness? And wondering, he knew that she did understand.

A silent shod waiter came and placed the coffee things at his elbow. He didn't heed. The waiter poured a demi-tasse, and inquiringly lifted a lump of sugar in the silver tongs. Still Mr. Grimm didn't heed. At last the waiter deposited the sugar on the edge of the fragile saucer, and moved away as silently as he had come. A newspaper which Mr. Grimm had placed on the end of the table when he sat down, rattled a little as a breeze from the open window caught it, then the top sheet slid off and fell to the floor. Mr. Grimm was still staring out of the window.

Slowly the room behind him was changing of its crowd as the theater-bound diners went out in twos and threes. The last of these disappeared finally, and save for Mr. Grimm there were not more than a dozen persons left in the place. Thus for a few minutes, and then the swinging doors leading from the street clicked, and a gentleman entered. He glanced around, as if seeking a seat near a window, then moved along in Mr. Grimm's direction, between the rows of tables. His gaze lingered on Mr. Grimm for an instant, and when he came opposite he stooped and picked up the fallen newspaper sheet.

"Your paper?" he inquired courteously.

Mr. Grimm was still gazing dreamily out of the window.

"I beg pardon," insisted the newcomer pleasantly. He folded the paper once and replaced it on the table. One hand lingered for just the fraction of a moment above Mr. Grimm's coffee-cup.

Aroused by the remark, Mr. Grimm glanced around.

"Oh, thank you," he apologized hastily. "I didn't hear you at first. Thank you."

The newcomer nodded, smiled and passed on, taking a seat two or three tables down.

Apparently this trifling courtesy had broken the spell of reverie, for Mr. Grimm squared around to the table again, drew his coffee-cup toward him, and dropped in the single lump of sugar. He idly stirred it for a moment, as his eyes turned again toward the open window, then he lifted the tiny cup and emptied it.

Again he sat motionless for a long time, and thence the newcomer, only a few feet away, glanced at him narrowly. And now, it seemed, a peculiar drowsiness was overtaking Mr. Grimm. Once he caught himself nodding and raised his head with a jerk. Then he noticed that the arc lights in the street were wobbling curiously, and he fell to wondering why that single flame sparkled at the apex of the capitol dome. Things around him grew hazy, vague, unreal, and then, as if realizing that something was the matter with him, he came to his feet.

He took one step forward into the space between the tables, reeled, attempted to steady himself by holding on to a chair, then everything grew black about him, and he pitched forward on the floor. His face was dead white; his fingers moved a little, nervously, weakly, then they were still.

Several people rose at the sound of the falling body, and the newcomer hurried forward. His coat sleeve caught the empty demi-tasse, as he stooped, and swept it to the floor, where it was shattered. The head waiter and another came, pell-mell, and those diners who had risen came more slowly.

"What's the matter?" asked the head waiter anxiously.

Already the newcomer was supporting Mr. Grimm on his knee, and flicking water in his face.

"Nothing serious, I fancy," he answered shortly. "He's subject to these little attacks."

"What are they? Who is he?"

The stranger tore at Mr. Grimm's collar until it came loose, then he fell to chafing the still hands.

"He is a Mr. Grimm, a government employee—I know him," he answered again. "I imagine it's nothing more serious than indigestion."

A little knot had gathered about them, with offers of assistance.

"Waiter, hadn't you better send for a physician?" some one suggested.

TO SEE THEIR MOTHER.

That the children may be permitted to visit their mother in Marion who is reported to be in her last sickness, Judge H. J. Paulus of the grand circuit court has authorized the guardian of Henry J., Miles M., and Erie Ladd in the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown to advance transportation. The mother, Mrs. Victor Collins, is a victim of tuberculosis.

STOMACH TROUBLES

Cured by Vinol—Here is Proof.

Seymour, Ind., "I was troubled with a chronic stomach trouble and five weeks ago it got so bad I had to give up work. I had tried various medicines without relief—and was finally induced to try Vinol. After taking the first bottle I was greatly benefited. Am now on the third bottle and ready to resume work. Am rapidly gaining in weight and strength." Edw. Nieman. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

It is the curative medicinal elements of the cod's livers, combined with the strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol which makes it so successful in restoring perfect digestion and at the same time it builds up the tired, overworked, run-down system.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. F. B. Johnson & Co., druggists, Rushville, Ind.

"I'm a physician," the stranger put in impatiently. "Have some one call a cab, and I'll see that he's taken home. It happens that we live in the same apartment house, just a few blocks from here."

Obedient to the crisply-spoken directions, a cab was called, and five minutes later Mr. Grimm, still insensible, was lifted into it. The stranger took a seat beside him, the cabby touched his horse with a whip, and the vehicle fell into the endless, moving line.

CHAPTER XXI.

A Slip of Paper.

When the light of returning consciousness finally pierced the black lethargy that enshrouded him, Mr. Grimm's mind was a chaos of vagrant, absurd fantasies; then slowly, slowly realization struggled back to its own, and he came to know things. First was the knowledge that he was lying flat on his back, on a couch, it seemed; then, that he was in the dark—an utter, abject darkness. And finally came an overwhelming sense of silence.

For a while he lay motionless, with not even the movement of an eye-lash to indicate consciousness, wrapped in a delicious languor. Gradually this passed and the feeble flutter of his heart grew into a steady, rhythmic beat. The keen brain was awakening; he was beginning to remember. What had happened? He knew only that in some manner a drug had been administered to him, a bitter dose tasting of opium; that speechlessly, he had fought against it, that he had risen from the table in the restaurant, and that he had fallen. All the rest was blank.

With eyes still closed, and nerveless hands inert at his sides he listened, the while he turned the situation over in speculative mood. The waiter had administered the drug, of course, unless—unless it had been the courteous stranger who had replaced the newspaper on the table! That thought opened new fields of conjecture. Mr. Grimm had no recollection of ever having seen him before; and he had paid only the enforced attention of politeness to him. And why had the drug been administered? Vaguely, incoherently, Mr. Grimm imagined that in some way it had to do with the great international plot of war in which Miss Thorne was so delicate and vital an instrument.

Where was he? Conjecture stopped there. Evidently he was where the courteous gentleman in the restaurant wanted him to be. A prisoner? Probably. In danger? Long, careful attention to detail work in the Secret Service had convinced Mr. Grimm that he was always in danger. That was one reason—and the best—why he had lain motionless, without so much as lifting a finger, since that first glimmer of consciousness had entered his brain. He was probably under scrutiny, even in the darkness, and for the present it was desirable to accommodate any chance watcher by remaining apparently unconscious.

And so for a long time he lay, listening. Was there another person in the room? Mr. Grimm's ears were keenly alive for the inadvertent shuffling of a foot; or the sound of breathing. Nothing. Even the night roar of the city was missing; the silence was oppressive. At last he opened his eyes. A pall of gloom encompassed him—a pall without one rift of light. His fingers, moving slowly, explored says it is surprising how many old-fashioned remedies are being used, which goes to show that it is hard to improve some of our grandmothers' old, time-tried remedies. For instance, for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy, nothing equaling our grandmothers' "sage tea" has ever been discovered. Although, by the addition of sulphur and other ingredients, this old-fashioned brew has been made more effective as a scalp tonic and color restorer. Nowadays when our hair comes out or gets faded or gray, instead of going to the garden or garret for herbs and making the "tea" ourselves, we simply go to the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. This preparation is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

the limits of the couch whereon lay.

Confident, at last, that wherever he was, he was unwatched, Mr. Grimm was on the point of concluding that further inaction was useless, when his straining ears caught the faint grating of metal against metal—perhaps the insertion of a key in the lock. His hands grew still; his eyes closed. And after a moment a door creaked slightly on its hinges, and a breath of cool air informed Mr. Grimm that that open door, wherever it was, led to the outside, and freedom.

There was another faint creaking as the door was shut. Mr. Grimm's nerveless hands closed involuntarily, and his lips were set together tightly. Was it to be a knife thrust in the dark? If not—then what? He expected the flare of a match; instead there was a soft thread, and the rustle of skirts. A woman! Mr. Grimm's caution was all but forgotten in his surprise. As the steps drew nearer his clenched fingers loosened; he waited.

Two hands stretched forward in the dark, touched him simultaneously—one on the face, one on the breast. A singular thrill shot through him, but there was not the flicker of an eye or the twitching of a finger. The woman—it was a woman—seemed now to be bending over him, then he heard her drop on her knees beside him, and she pressed an inquiring ear to his left side. It was the heart test.

"Thank God!" she breathed softly. It was only by a masterful effort that Mr. Grimm held himself limp and inert, for a strange fragrance was enveloping him—a fragrance he well knew.

The hands were fumbling at his breast again, and there was the sharp crackle of paper. At first he didn't understand, then he knew that the woman had pinned a paper to the lapel of his coat. Finally she straightened up, and took two steps away from him, after which came a pause. His keenly attuned ears caught her faint breathing, then the rustle of her skirts as she turned back. She was leaning over him again—her lips touched his forehead, barely; again there was a quick rustling of skirts, the door creaked, and—silence, deep, oppressive, overwhelming silence.

Isabel! Was he dreaming? And then he ceased wondering and fell to remembering her kiss—light as air—and the softly spoken "Thank God!" She did care, then! She had understood, that day!

The kiss of a woman beloved is a splendid heart tonic. Mr. Grimm straightened up suddenly on the couch, himself again. He touched the slip of paper which she had pinned to his coat to make sure it was not all a dream, after which he recalled the fact that while he had heard the door creak before she went out he had not heard it creak afterward. Therefore, the door was open. She had left it open. Purposely? That was beside the question at the moment.

And why—how—was she in Washington? Pondering that question, Mr. Grimm's excellent teeth clicked sharply together and he rose. He knew the answer. The compact was to be signed—the alliance which would array the civilized world in arms. He had failed to block that, as he thought. If Miss Thorne had returned, then Prince Benedetto d'Abruzzi, who held absolute power to sign the compact for Italy, France and Spain, had also returned.

Stealthily feeling his way as he went, Mr. Grimm moved toward the door leading to freedom, guided by the fresh draft of air. He reached the door—it was standing open—and a moment later stepped out into the starlit night. It was open country here, with a thread of white road just ahead, and farther along a fringe of shrubbery. Mr. Grimm reached the road. Far down it, a pin point in the night, a light flickered through interlacing branches. The tail lamp of an automobile, of course!

Mr. Grimm left the road and skirted a sparse hedge in the direction of the light. After a moment he heard the engine of an automobile, and saw a woman—barely discernible—step into the car. As it started forward he staked everything on one bold move, and won, his reward being a narrow sitting space in the rear of the car, hidden from its occupants by the tonneau. One mile, two miles, three miles they charged through the night, and still he clung on. At last there came relief.

"That's the place, where the lights are—just ahead."

There was no mistaking that voice raised above the clamor of the engine. The car slackened speed, and Mr. Grimm dropped off and darted behind some convenient bushes. And the first thing he did there was to light a match, and read what was written on the slip of paper pinned to his coat. It was, simply:

My Dear Mr. Grimm:
"By the time you read this the compact will have been signed, and your efforts to prevent it, splendid as they were, futile. It is a tribute to you that it was unanimously agreed that you must be accounted for at the time of the signing, hence the drugging in the restaurant; it was only an act of kindness that I should come here to see that all was well with you, and leave the door open behind me."

"Believe me when I say that you are one man in whom I have never been disappointed. Accept this as my farewell, for now I assume again the name and position rightfully mine. And know, too, that I shall always cherish the belief that you will remember me as

"Your friend,
"ISABEL THORNE."

"P. S. The prince and I left the steamer at Montauk Point, on a tug-boat."

Mr. Grimm kissed the note twice, then burned it.

My Corns Don't Hurt A Bit.

Tired, Ailing, Swollen, Smelly, Sweaty Feet, Corns, Callouses and Bunions, TIZ Cures Right Off.

Say good-bye to your corns the very first time you use TIZ. You will never know you have a corn, bunion or callous or sweaty, tired, swollen, aching feet any more. It's just wonderful the way the pain vanishes. Rub the corn—hammer it with your fist if you wish—no more pain after TIZ than if there had never been a blemish on your feet. Doesn't that sound good to you? Don't it? Then read this.

"The corns on either of my toes were as large as the tablets you make to cure them. To-day there is no sign of corns on either foot and no soreness. It's an up-to-date Godsend.—Samm. A. Hoover, Progress, N. C."

Just use TIZ. It's not like anything else for the purpose you ever heard of. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. It works right off. You will feel better the very first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25 cents per box, or direct, if you wish, from Walter Luthers Rudge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

ORDER TO MOVE BLACK TROOPS

Texas Congressman's Objections to Colored Soldiers at San Antonio Resulted in an Order Transferring the Objectionable Troops to Brownsville and Laredo, of All Places in the World Least Wanting Them.

San Antonio, Tex., April 6.—Due to hit the head of Congressman John N. Garner, who represents the district of Texas wherein the town of Brown-sville is, perhaps the most unexpected boomerang that has hailed out of the house of representatives in Washington and back again for some time past. As a result of Mr. Garner's efforts Brownsville is about to see negro troops quartered in its midst for the first time since a battalion of the Twenty-fifth colored infantry contributed to the "Brownsville incident" of four years ago.

Though General W. H. Carter, in command of the troops mobilized at Fort Sam Houston, had said that he did not expect orders detaching the Ninth cavalry of negro troops from his command, the orders came to him from the war department. Simultaneously General J. W. Duncan, in command of the department of Texas, received orders to recall the Third cavalry from patrol duty along the border and to send out the Ninth cavalry to take the place of the Third in the job of preserving the neutrality
of the United States along the 1,800
miles of international boundary comprised in the limits of the department.
By these orders the Third cavalry will go under the command of General
Carter, taking the place in the division which the Ninth had held as a part of the independent cavalry brigade, and the negro cavalrymen will fill all of the posts along the border which had been covered by the Third cavalry.
One of these posts is Fort Brown, at Brownsville, and another is Fort Sam Fordyce, sixty miles away from the town where the alleged shooting occurred during the time of Roosevelt.
Since an inspired telegram quoting
Mr. Garner appeared in a local paper under a Washington date line,
which said the Texas congressman had secured Mr. Taft's promise to move the Ninth cavalry away from San Antonio, it is the general opinion among army men that Mr. Garner had been responsible for the order transferring the colored troops. Garner was quoted as saying that the refusal of the men of the Ninth to be bound by the Texas "Jim Crow" law for public conveyances had led to several instances of violence on the street railways of San Antonio, and that the continued presence of the negroes at the camp here was a menace to the maintenance of law and order.

CREATED A ROAR

Other Points Besides Brownsville Resent Military Order.

Laredo, Tex., April 6.—The report that two troops of the Ninth cavalry and the regimental band are to be sent by General Duncan to Fort McIntosh, located outside this town, has caused considerable excitement among the citizens of Laredo and the surrounding towns. A petition was being circulated for signatures which is addressed to Congressman Garner and which urges him to use his influence to prevent the assignment of negro troops to Fort McIntosh. Word was received here from Sanderson to the effect that that point will be received with vigorous protests by Sanderson people as well. They, too, are sending telegrams to their congressmen. Several years ago, before the Brownsville incident, negro soldiers at Fort McIntosh shot up Laredo in the same manner as they are alleged to have done
at Brownsville, and they are very bitterly disliked in this part of the state.

A Mysterious Disappearance.

Canton, Ill., April 6.—Principal A.
Hamilton of the McCall school has

is reported to have boarded the Illinois river steamer Bald Eagle at Liverpool, ostensibly for Pekin. The police of Peoria, Pekin, Havana and St.
Louis have been notified.

carawas coal mining district, when the executive board of the United Mine Workers will hear representatives of the operators and district officers of the mine workers, is in progress today in this city. Eight thousand men are affected by this strike, which was ordered several weeks ago. The question of indorsing and supporting the suspension of work in the mines in the province of Alberta, Canada, affecting 6,000 men, has not yet been taken up by the executive board, although representatives of the Alberta
miners are in the city.

President White has announced the appointment of William Green of Ohio
as statistician of the mine workers,
but has not yet completed the work of selecting the field organizers of the union. He is looking into the situation to ascertain the number of organizers needed at this time, before finishing his list of appointments.

Northern Indiana M. E. Conference.

Kokomo, Ind., April 6.—The North Indiana annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church is holding its sixty-eighth session here. Bishop Edwin H. Hughes of San Francisco, former president of DePaul university, is presiding. A feature of the conference will be an address Friday afternoon by Charles Warren Fairbanks, former vice president of the United States.

Costly Head-On Collision.

Elkhart, Ind., April 6.—An incoming Lake Shore freight and an eastbound passenger train were in head-on collision six miles east of Elkhart. The damage was $25,000. John G. Page, engineer, and H. A. Wilder, fireman, of the passenger train, were buried in the coal, but escaped with bruises. The freight enginemen escaped by jumping.

Bad Blaze at Knox.

Knox, Ind., April 6.—An explosion of naphtha in the enameling department of the Knox metal wheel factory caused a loss of $20,000 by fire. Forty men are out of work temporarily.
The plant will be rebuilt.

WOMEN'S BEAUTY

Imperfect Digestion Causes Bad
Complexion and Dull Eyes

The color in your cheeks won't fade, the brightness in your eye won't vanish, if you keep your stomach in good condition.

Belching of gas; heaviness, sour taste in mouth, dizziness, biliousness and nausea occur simply because the stomach is not properly digesting the food.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets give instant relief to upset stomachs, but they do more: they put strength into the stomach and build it up so that it can easily digest a hearty meal.

"I had stomach trouble for six years—for days at a time could eat nothing at all. After taking MI-O-Na treatment I am in perfect health and can eat anything."—E. M. Campbell, 1200 S. Prospect St., Sedalia, Mo.

MI-O-NA is sold by F. B. Johnson & Co., and druggists everywhere at 50 cents a large box. It is guaranteed to cure indigestion, and all stomach distress, or money back.

have been troubled severely with kidney trouble for some time and recently it became much worse. My kidney action was much too frequent and I suffered from a severe pain over the back. However, a few doses of Foley's Kidney Pills were all that was necessary to completely correct these ailments and thanks to Foley Kidney Pills which I gladly recommend."

NAMES HINES AS MAN WHO PUT UP

Details of Lorimer Slush Fund
Coming Out.

FUNK TELLS SORDID STORY

Manager of the Harvester Company, Whom Editor Kohlsaat Had Named
as His Informant, Tells Committee That Lumber King Hines Was Active in Raising Fund to Elect Lor-mer—Hines Promptly Denies Story.

Springfield, Ill., April 6.—At the hearing of the senate investigating committee, Edward Hines, the Chicago
lumber king, was named as the man who put up the $100,000 fund to secure the election of William Lorimer
as United States senator from Illinois.
The statement was made by Clarence
S. Funk, general manager of the International Harvester company at Chicago. Funk said that Hines came to him, asking him to give $10,000 to the fund and that Edward Tilden was the treasurer of the fund.

Herman Kohlsaat, editor of the Chicago Record-Herald, first testified that Funk had informed him that the fund
was raised and that on this information he had printed his editorial. Funk had released him from secrecy since the last meeting of the committee, when Mr. Kohlsaat refused to divulge
the name of his informant.

Mr. Funk then testified to being approached by Hines and asked to contribute $10,000 to the Lorimer fund.
Hines is a close friend of Lorimer and was one of the senator's most active lobbyists during the investigation at Washington resulting in the exoneration of Lorimer. Edward Tilden, whom Funk named as the treasurer of the $100,000 fund, is accredited with acting for the meat packers.

Funk said that Hines told him that $100,000 was to be rushed to Springfield to secure the election of Lorimer and that the International Harvester company was expected to be one of the ten big people to make up the fund. Funk said he refused to make the contribution, but was told to think the matter over and send the cash to Edward Tilden. Funk did not know Tilden, and it was not until he was summarily ordered to do so that he gave Tilden's name to the committee.

"I asked him why he came to me,"
said Funk. "You are just as much interested in having the right kind of a man at Washington as we are," said Hines. I then told him we would not have anything to do with the matter,
that we were not in that kind of business. I asked him how much he was getting from the different corporations. He told me it would be necessary to get the money from a few big concerns. 'If ten of them will put up $10,000 apiece, that will be enough,' Hines said."

Funk then related that several days
following this conversation with Hines
he told the incident to Cyrus McCormick, president of the harvester company, repeating briefly the substance of Hines's statement.

"Mr. McCormick asked me what I did, and I told him I refused to consider the proposition," Funk said. He replied, 'Good; I'm glad you turned him down promptly.' Mr. McCormick seemed very much chagrined to think that his company should have been approached in such a manner and for such a purpose."

Not So, Says Hines.

Chicago, April 6.—Edward Hines denies absolutely the story told the Helm committee of the legislature which is investigating the election of William Lorimer, that he, Hines, had solicited a fund of $100,000 for the senator's election.

WILL LOOK INTO IT

The Senate Will Probably Revive Lorimer Investigation.

Washington, April 6.—That Senator William Lorimer of Illinois will be put to the task of defending, for a second time, his title to his seat in the senate, seems certain in view of the testimony given by Clarence S. Funk before the investigating committee of the Illinois legislature. It is the best judgment of those senators who have been watching the developments before the Illinois committee that a resolution will be introduced in the senate shortly naming a special committee of the senate to conduct a searching investigation into the Lorimer scandal.

The news of the startling testimony
that a fund of $100,000 had been expended to elect Lorimer did not come as a surprise to some senators. Several of the senators who took the lead in opposing Lorimer had information before the adjournment of the regular session of the senate, even before the vote on the Lorimer case of the alleged conversation between Edward Hines, friend of Senator Lorimer, and C. S.
Funk of the McCormick Harvester company.

Prospectors Again Excited.

Porcupine City, Ore., April 6.—New gold discoveries have been made north of the line of the National Transcontental railway, just north of the township of Marathon. Hundreds of miners are flocking there from Porcupine.

Big Winner Enters
Longest Auto Race

Joe Dawson, nominated to drive a Marmon special in the 500-mile International Sweepstakes race at the

Indianapolis Motor Speedway Men-orial Day, May 30. Dawson was one of the greatest winning auto racing
pilots of 1910, winning the Cobe Trophy, the Vanderbilt Donor's

the City of Atlanta Trophy and the Remy Trophy, as well as many smaller events.

The last motor race pilot to be nominated for the 500-mile International Sweepstakes race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway is Bert Adams, who will drive a big McFarlan Six. Adams drove McFarlan cars in the 1910 season and was successful on the southern track, including the Atlanta Speedway meeting. He is now building a special race car at the factory at Connorsville, and will have it
at Indianapolis ready for a tryout early in May.

Two miles and a half of solid brick paving at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway ranging in width from forty to sixty feet contains nearly 4,000,000
bricks. These are of the vitrified var-

URGED TO ATTEND TENTH CONVENTION

Tentative Plans Are Made at Meeting of the Auxiliary of the C. W. B. M.

MRS. J. D. CASE IS ON PROGRAM

At the meeting of the Auxiliary of the Christian Women Board of Missions at the home of Mrs. George W. Thomas in North Perkins street yesterday afternoon, tentative plans were made to attend the tenth district convention of the Christian church to be held at Liberty today and tomorrow. It was urged that the members of the local church attend both days' sessions, but if they could only be present one day, to go for the Friday's meeting. It is thought that a large number will attend. On Friday afternoon, Mrs. J. D. Case of this city, who is manager of this district, will conduct a workers' conference. Mrs. Frank Wells, president of the C. W. B. M. and Mrs. O. H. Greist, vice-president, will speak.

The meeting at the home of Mrs. Thomas yesterday afternoon was one of the most enjoyable ones recently. Eight women applied for membership to the auxiliary. The paper by Mrs. George Looney on her trip through California this winter was one of the most delightful numbers on the program.

NEXT MEETING TO BE IN CARTHAGE

Missionary Rally Held Today in St.

Paul M. E. Church—The Rev.

Tevis Will Talk Tonight.

MANY MINISTERS ATTEND

The missionary rally held this afternoon and also tonight at the St. Paul M. E. church concluded the series for this week and the next meeting will be held in Carthage on Tuesday. The Rev. J. W. Turner, pastor of the church, presided at the meeting this afternoon and will have charge of the session tonight. This afternoon the missionary question discussed was under two topics, "The Statement of the Problem," and "The Solution of the Problem." A number of ministers present joined in the discussion, which proved very interesting. Among those who spoke were the Rev. C. N. Wilson of Carthage; A. R. Jones of Arlington; F. C. Burns of Falmouth and Clyde S. Black of Glenwood. Tonight's meeting will begin promptly at 7:15 and will be led by the Rev. V. W. Tevis.
